3pm – Departure for Gubbio for a tour of the town that includes Palazzo Ducale and Amphitheatre.

Dramatically perched on a hill overlooking the ruins of its 1st A.D. Roman theatre, here in Gubbio time seems to have quite literally stopped in the Middle Ages. Gubbio's "detachment" from today's world is also a reality: the town is not on a railway line – here, one feels in a world apart. The visit of Gubbio starts with a stop at to pay homage to World War II martyrs at a revered local shrine. You will be taken through Gubbio's most stunning (and hidden!) medieval backstreets to the imposing 14th c. Palazzo dei Consoli, said to rival Palazzo Vecchio in Florence in its beauty.

7pm – Dinner in Gubbio before returning to the villa

DAY 8– Friday 17th May 2024

7:30am – 9:30am – Farewell breakfast at the villa by staff.

9:30am – Departure for Orvieto for a visit of the city and Cathedral

Orvieto sits on a volcanic tufa-rock plateau, an impregnable position cleverly selected by the Etruscans, probably its first inhabitants.

After exploring the Etruscan tombs outside the city, a funicular up the tufo plateau takes you to the centro storico of Orvieto. A walk up one of the main streets takes you past the workshops of many an artisan, winding past the 13th c. municipal palace. Not far away, uncover Etruscan ruins in a medieval church and stop to visit the workshop of a famed wood-worker.

You'll want to take in the wonders of Orvieto's zebra-striped Gothic Duomo – and not just the famous splendid Renaissance fresco cycle of Luca Signorelli.

A masterpiece of the "international Gothic" style adorns the cathedral and 13th-century relics fascinate the visitor, as well as one of the finest existing examples of Sienese goldsmith/inlay work of the 14th -c.

Lunch and wine tasting at Locanda Palazzone

Departure from Palazzone after lunch and transfer to Rome centre (drop off point TBC), arrival late afternoon.

Conclusion of tour and time to bid farewell.
